

Mirko Machetti

Free Wall Needed, Berlin 2018

Curated by Giuseppe Ruffo

October 13 - October 30, 2018

Opening Saturday, October 13, 8 pm - 12 pm - Bikini Waxx Records

Manteuffelstrasse 48, 10999 Berlin, Germany

GR Contemporary art is pleased to present Free Wall Needed, Wall n4.

The wall is a flat vertical surface, can function as barrier or limit.

The walls can delineate public or private boundaries, territorial subdivisions of areas, regions, states or nations.

Free Wall Needed is a curatorial project, takes advantage of the vertical flat surface of the wall. The surface is used and transformed into a support for ideas. A wall that looks like a door, a window that goes beyond the concept of limit.

The project involves the presentation of an artist every two weeks, through a single exhibition or installation of a work, in locations that are always new and unusual.

The idea is to create a platform of artists from different parts of the world, trying to highlight the diversity of the contexts of origin. In fact, through cooperation a knowledge base is created that is the antithesis of the conception of limit, closure and wall.

The fourth stage of the initiative will be in the Bikini Wax Records, Berlin with Italian photographer and director

Mirko Machetti, 1974 Siena, lives and works in Milan, Italy.

He participated in the short film with the short film Scalpellino at the 19th Siena Film Festival and in 2017 with the short film at the Short Movie Club, Festival International De Cine Del Impero Inca, Los Angeles Cineast (semifinalist) Near Nazareth Festival, Chicken in Short, Shorts to South and Cyborg Film Festival info: grcontemporaryart@gmail.com www.giusepperuffo.com tel. +393933641664