

Loneliness and Poetics – 2024 London Contemporary Art Review Exhibition

On November 18, 2024, the results of the "Loneliness and Poetics – 2024 London Contemporary Art Review Exhibition" were officially announced to artists worldwide. The online media exhibition will run from November 18 to December 18, 2024.

Gallery NAT is honored to present the award results to artists from around the world who submitted their works to this esteemed international art competition in the UK. During the submission period, the competition received thousands of entries from global participants. Through three rigorous rounds of evaluation by the jury and curatorial team of Gallery NAT's Academic Committee in the UK, the selection process upheld principles of fairness, originality, academic rigor, innovation, and humanistic values. It emphasized the philosophical and emotional depth of the themes, a multicultural international perspective, and a comprehensive assessment of the thematic, innovative, technical, and interactive qualities of the works. The selected winners represent forward-thinking excellence in contemporary art.

The award-winning artists of the "Loneliness and Poetics – 2024 London Contemporary Art Review Exhibition" hail from 26 countries, including the United Kingdom, United States, Switzerland, Poland, Germany, France, Italy, China, South Africa, Canada, Iceland, South Korea, Japan, Singapore, Luxembourg, Belgium, Mexico, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Malta, Denmark, Colombia, Ireland, Ukraine, Turkey, Romania, and Kazakhstan. A total of 87 outstanding artists across various disciplines were honored with awards in different categories.

The online media exhibition will showcase these remarkable works from November 18 to December 18, 2024.
