

GIULIA FRATTINI

education

- Node Center: Creative Forms of Art Criticism and Writing
- Bachelor Degree in Art Communication and Didactics at Accademia di Belle Arti di Brera, Milano (graduand)
- High School Diploma in Humanistic Studies at Liceo Classico E. Cairoli, Varese work experience

- Curator of exhibition “Stains on the pathway” at Substrato, Varese
- Founder of Back to Hole, social media art-based account
- Writer for web university magazine UniCoffee (visual art section)
- Museum operator at La Vigna di Leonardo, Milano
- Back and Front Office (internship) at Goodevents srl, Milano

skills

- English, written and spoken (C1)
- French, written and spoken (B1)
- German, written and spoken (A1)
- InDesign, Photoshop
- Microsoft Office (Word, PPT)

interests

- Visual arts: I have a keen interest in writing about contemporary art and in doing research through publications, essays and specialist periodicals.
- Graphic design: I've accomplished academic and personal projects working on my own vision and style.
- Fashion: I'm fascinated by social dynamics that take shape in the world of fashion and by associations between this field and visual arts.
- Photography: I'm passionate about its history, black and white old photos and polaroids.
- Yoga: I'm a beginner and I'm trying to expand my ability to concentrate through the control of my body.

info and contacts

- 11th December 1992 (26 yo)
- Italian
- +39 3339499559
- giulia.frattini@hotmail.it
- Via A. Sangiorgio 34, 21056, Italy
-  back.to.hole

personal

- capacity for adaptation and flexibility
- aesthetic sensitivity and lateral thinking
- accuracy in achieving tasks
- readiness to engage in dialogue and team-working
- marked sense of responsibility
- creativity
- detail oriented
- self-reliance in problem solving